

Executive Director
Boston, MA

Hill House is, and always has been, a community effort. More than 55 years ago, neighbors residing in the Beacon Hill area sought to promote a sense of community among the residents of this very unique Boston neighborhood. Now a resource for more than 2,000 families each year, Hill House's mission remains the same.

The community center was incorporated in the spring of 1966 at 74 Joy Street. It was at this location that the organization and its mission began to flourish. In 2001, following a donation by Mayor Menino and the City of Boston, countless campaign efforts and 3 years of renovations, the Mt. Vernon Street firehouse opened its doors as Hill House's new and improved central building. Growth and development following the move were exponential.

The ideal candidate for this role will embrace and embody the values and mission of Hill House. Ideally, this individual will be an:

Entrepreneurial self-starter with the drive to collaboratively set and achieve strategic growth for the organization. The Executive Director must be a creative and confident risk-taker, with the ability to identify opportunities to innovate and expand HH's impact. An adaptive leader, the Executive Director's focus on student and family centered success is informed by lived personal and professional experiences that reflect the communities HH serves.

Strategic fundraiser with experience activating corporate, individual, and foundation support. The Executive Director will cultivate relationships to achieve HH's mission, reflecting present needs and widening the circle for future opportunities. They will continue to build HH's visibility and reputation as a vital community resource, forging and maintaining strong relationships with current and potential donors and funders.

The compensation range for this position annually is between $180,000 - $200,000. Health, retirement, PTO, and other benefits are available.

The position will remain open until filled, but applicants are highly encouraged to submit their materials as soon as possible to ensure full consideration. Submit your application online (Click the Apply Button at the bottom of the page) <https://apptrkr.com/5357714> .
