ORGANIZATION BACKGROUNDS

This mission of the Waterfront Historic Area League (WHALE) is to foster historic preservation and continued use of the city's architectural heritage, so to enhance community and economic vitality in New Bedford, MA. WHALE accomplishes its mission through: Bricks and mortar historic preservation projects; Advocacy and Education. The mission of the Community Economic Development Center of Southeastern Massachusetts (CEDC) mission is to create a more just local economy by building bridges to resources, networks, and cooperative action for low-to-moderate income members of New Bedford. The larger community of New Bedford will benefit from the increased partnership and coordination between WHALE and CEDC, allowing them to focus their collective resources on projects with more challenges but also greater potential rewards to the city and its residents.

With residents and partners, LISC forges resilient and inclusive communities of opportunity across America – great places to live, work, visit, do business and raise families. Over the last 38 years, LISC and its affiliates have invested approximately $20 billion in businesses, affordable housing, health, educational mobility, community and recreational facilities, public safety, employment and other projects that help to revitalize and stabilize underinvested communities. These investments have leveraged more than $50 billion in development activity and helped families and communities raise their standards of living. LISC investments impact the lives of nearly 7 million Americans. Headquartered in New York City, LISC's reach spans the country from East coast to West coast in 31 markets with offices extending from Buffalo to San Francisco. Our rural programs make an impact in 44 states, and are supported by LISC's talented and dedicated workforce. Visit us at www.lisc.org
