The Financial and Internal Controls Analyst supports both the Fiscal Director of the Section 8/Housing Choice Voucher Program and the Department of Housing and Community Development's Internal Controls Officer (ICO). The position supports the Fiscal Director by preparing reconciliations of program accounts; maintaining books of account; producing regular programmatic and financial reports; and providing technical assistance to housing agency staff. This position also serves as back-up for other fiscal position(s) within the unit. The position supports the ICO by providing support during Federal and State audits, facilitating responses to the auditors and assisting in the development of risk assessment plans. Externally the position assists with fiscal reviews and audits of sub-recipients, reviews of correction action plans, and follow-up and implementation of correction action plans.

The Bureau of Rental Assistance (BRA) Fiscal Unit is charged with overseeing the processing of all fiscal transactions related to federal and state rental assistance housing programs. Currently, the federal program budget authority overseen by the BRA totals $341 million, and the state program budget authority is $99 million. Included in this are 21,137 federal vouchers and 12,115 state vouchers administered by programs in the BRA. Federal housing programs include Section 8 programs, such as Moving to Work (MTW), Family Unification Program (FUP), Veteran's Assistance Supported Housing (VASH), Housing Choice Voucher Program (HCV), Mainstream 5, Mod Rehab, Family Self-Sufficiency (FSS), and the Section 811 Project-Based Rental Assistance Demonstration Program (PRAD). State programs include Massachusetts Rental Voucher Program (MRVP), Alternative Housing Voucher Program (AHVP), Housing Consumer Education Center (HCEC) and Department of Mental Health (DMH) programs.

DHCD's Internal Controls Officer (ICO) is responsible for ensuring agency compliance with Federal and State regulations controlling the fiscal and programmatic administration of all programs. The Internal Controls Officer works with all divisions within DHCD. The ICO also works with external auditors to facilitate DHCD's compliance with document requests and implementation of corrective action plans. The ICO coordinates with the Office of the Comptroller on the statewide single audit and financial reporting. The ICO assists program staff as needed with monitoring of sub-recipient agencies. The ICO is responsible for working with all divisions of DHCD to create risk assessment plans and developing risk assessment monitoring protocols.
